ARTICLE 1. NAME

The name of this organization is the Clearview Lake Property Owners Association, Inc. hereinafter referred to as the "CLPOA".

ARTICLE 2. BUSINESS ADDRESS

The CLPOA maintains a business address at Post Office Box 375, Augusta, New Jersey, 07822.

ARTICLE 3. IDENTITY

A. The CLPOA functions as a non-profit corporation in the State of New Jersey. Its certificate of incorporation was filed with the Secretary of State on August 18, 1989

B. Upon dissolution of this corporation, and after all debts are satisfied, all assets shall be sold, and monies generated shall be distributed, in equal parts, to various charities.

ARTICLE 4. PURPOSES

The CLPOA shall:

A. Promote the general welfare and common good of property owners within the Clearview Lake community.

B. Provide policy, direction and control of community affairs within the community.

C. Purchase, hold, maintain, develop, improve and deal in common-use real estate and real property, or any interest therein which the CLPOA deems necessary for furthering its purposes, including, but not limited to the sale of any such real estate and real property.

D. If acquired, and to the extent that funds permit, maintain and care for all common facilities within the lake community, including, but not limited to roads, dam, beaches, spillway, and the lake proper.

E. Provide for the sports of boating, swimming, fishing and other recreational activities, as circumstances permit which the CLPOA deems appropriate.

F. Provide public access to the roads and lake.

G. Represent the residents of CLPOA in community and municipal affairs.

H. Exercise all prudent measures reasonably related to the health, comfort, enjoyment, safety and security of CLPOA members and their properties.

I. All activities undertaken by CLPOA on behalf of its members shall be dependent on availability of adequate funds.

ARTICLE 5. AUTHORIZATION TO ACT

A. The CLPOA is authorized to act on behalf of its members in all matters affecting the lake community and/or its environs. The CLPOA is the responsible agent for the transaction of all business necessary or desirable for the best interests of its membership.

B. In order to fulfill its purposes and carry out its fiscal responsibilities, the CLPOA is authorized to levy dues, assessments and/or special fees. Such dues, assessments and /or fees constitute liens upon all real property individually or collectively owned within the lake community. Non-payment thereof is subject to collection measures. Authorization is conveyed by Article 13 of the Clearview Lake Deed Restrictions, Book 612, recorded in the Hall of Records, Newton, New Hersey, on July 24, 1957. The restrictions contained in said book are illustrative of the deed restrictions attached to each member's deed at the time of purchase. The restrictions run with each member's land and the common areas of CLPOA.

C. The CLPOA shall establish policies and procedures regarding membership, payment of all monies due and owing, and the use of common facilities within the community.

D. The CLPOA is authorized to engage in other practical activities necessary and/or desirable for carrying out its purposes. Such activities include, but are not limited to, payment of any debts lawfully incurred, enforcing the rules and Regulations as set forth in this document, and any other worthwhile, lawful measure intended to promote the common good of its members.

ARTICLE 6. DUES AND ASSESMENTS

A. All persons, associations, corporations, or other legal entities owning real property within the boundaries of the Clearview Lake community shall be assessed annually for association dues which shall be determined from time to time by the Board of Directors in accordance with the By-laws.

B. The amount of the assessment shall be established by the Board of Directors in the annual budget and submitted to the membership for review at its May meeting, and approval at its September meeting. An affirmative vote by the majority of a quorum of the members-in-good-standing who are present at the September meeting shall be required for budget approval. Proxy votes shall be allowed. Increases so voted shall take effect on October 1 of the next fiscal year.

C. The Board of Directors may levy additional assessments for special projects/needs within the lake community. A quorum of the members-in-good-standing must be present at a meeting to approve any special assessments. Proxy votes shall be allowed.

D. Homeowners, whether year-round or seasonal, shall be assessed the same amount. Persons who rent out their homes are required to pay the full dues assessment.

E. Lotowners shall be assessed as follows:

1. Lots which are contiguous to the lot on which their home(s) is/are built shall receive no additional assessment.

2. Lots which are separate from their house(s) shall be assessed individually. Multiple lots, if contiguous, shall be assessed as one lot.

F. Property owners whose property(ies) front on township roads shall be required to pay full yearly dues assessment. Property owners whose property(ies) front on county roads, and wish to use the lake facilities, shall be required to pay one-half yearly dues assessment.

G. All dues, assessments, fees or charges shall be due and payable by the last day of the fiscal year, September 30.

1. A late fee of $50 per year shall be assessed for any and all delinquent dues.

2. Failure to pay dues by the due date, shall subject the property owner to collection procedures and all costs involved, including, but not limited to reasonable attorney's fees plus all disbursements, including but not limited to filing fees, court costs, pre-judgment and post-judgment interest, which shall be assessed to the property owner and included in any collection action against the delinquent property owner.

3. Unpaid dues, assessments, fees or charges shall constitute a lien against the property in question. Upon delinquency, a Notice of Lis Pendens shall be filed with the Sussex County Clerk as evidence of the lien. The costs for the filing of the Notice of Lis Pendens shall be assessed to the property owner and be included in any amount due. Upon payment of the past due balance, a Discharge of Lis Pendens shall be forwarded to the property owner and the responsibility of filing and the costs involved shall be borne by the property owner.

H. CLPOA members shall be required to furnish to the Corresponding Secretary a current address to which all notices and documents concerning CLPOA business may be sent. Such notices and documents shall be help to have been duly sent to, or served upon a member when mailed to or otherwise delivered to that address.

ARTICLE 7. MEMBERSHIP

All disbursements shall be made at closing or before construction begins, and shall be directly deposited into the treasury of the CLPOA. It is mandatory that all homeowners join the CLPOA.

5. Temporary Closure of “Paper Roads”

Purpose: To temporarily close roads or sections thereof in the Clearview Lake Community that are currently not maintained. Such roads either pass by vacant lots or are not the primary route to an individual’s residence. The police, fire departments and other emergency services will be provided with an updated map of the community, noting these temporary closures, in the hope of reducing response time.

Temporarily closed roads may be re-opened in the future by writing to the CLPOA Board of Directors and asking permission. This would be done to construct a new home, gain another access, or for other valid reasons determined necessary by the Board of Directors. The cost of re-opening these temporarily closed roads will be borne by the petitioner.

Any person travelling on these temporarily closed roads will assume all responsibility and liability for any injuries.

CLEARVIEW LAKE PROPERTY OWNERS ASSOCIATION, INC.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

- 1. DUES ASSESSMENT - An annual dues assessment for all property owners for the upcoming fiscal year will be sent by the Board of Directors, with the approval of a majority of the members-in-good-standing present at the May meeting. Current dues will be payable by the end of the current fiscal year (September 30) as stipulated in the By-laws. See Article 6.
- 2. UNAUTHORIZED HOUSING - House trailers or mobile homes of any type are not to be used as a residence within Clearview Lake.
- 3. USE OF FACILITIES - All State of New Jersey Rules and Regulations regarding boating shall be observed, including registration and licensing, where required. The CLPOA reserves the right to restrict boating beyond what the State of New Jersey allows. Boats powered by internal combustion engines are not permitted on the lake. Life vests and jackets must be worn at all times or floatation cushions must be present in the boat. No boats or other watercraft are permitted on the lake before sunrise or after sunset.

Children under ten (10), or any child who does not know how to swim, must be accompanied by a responsible adult when in the water, in or on a watercraft, or otherwise near the lake.

Swimming, boating, use of roads and any other public facilities will be at the user's own risk. This extends to recreational use of the lake when frozen, including ice-skating and ice-fishing.

- 4. Public Conduct - No loitering or group gatherings will be permitted after 10:00 PM April 1st – October 31st on roads, beaches, or on any property unless by invitation of the owner. From November 1st – March 31st, groups may not gather after 7:00 PM. No open alcoholic beverages are permitted in automobiles, on beaches, or on properties, unless by invitation of the owner.

Excessive noise is not allowed within the lake community. This extends to house parties, radios or other sound sources, motor vehicles, vehicle horns, whistles, sirens, and any other source of potential noise which constitutes a public nuisance. Construction noise is permitted between 7:00 AM and 6:00 PM only. Use of road improvement equipment is permitted until sunset. See Hampton Township noise ordinance.

Malicious mischief and vandalism will not be tolerated. Parents will be held responsible for the public conduct of their children, and will be held legally liable for any property damage or injury caused by their children. Members are urged to report all violators to the State Police and local authorities.

5. ENVIRONMENTAL RESPECT - Dumping and littering on or near roads, on improved or unimproved lots, or in the lake or streams, is strictly forbidden. Members are urged to report all violators to the State Police and local authorities.

Residents are expected to keep their properties free of debris, litter, unregistered vehicles and parts thereof, garbage, construction materials, tires, and any other material which is unsightly. Residents are also expected to keep their homes in good repair, including exterior painting, their yards neat, and their bushes and shrubbery trimmed.

Empty garbage cans may not be left at curbside between weekly pickups. Garbage, which is not picked up on collection day, is to be removed from the curbside and stored properly until the following collection. Materials which are not picked up on recycle or bulk pickup days may not be left at curbside.

Septic runoff into the lake pollutes and clouds the water, encourages algae and weed overgrowth, and kills fish. Residents who live along the shore are urged to have their septic tanks pumped every three (3) years to protect the lake.

Fertilizers, herbicides, and other potentially hazardous chemicals should be used with discretion on properties along the shore. Leaves, brush, grass clippings, and weeds shall not be dumped into the lake or streams.

6. VEHICULAR TRAFFIC - Clearview Lake roads are owned by the CLPOA, but are opened to the general public on an unlimited basis.

All vehicles which use the roads such as cars, vans, trucks and motorcycles must be registered, insured and licensed with the New Jersey Motor Vehicle Commission. These vehicles must have proper mufflers or will not be permitted on the roads. All dirt bikes, mopeds, three (3) and four (4) wheel All-Terrain-Vehicles and snowmobiles are banned for use on community roads or the lake.

A 20 mile per hour limit will be enforced on all roads, This applies to cars, vans, trucks and motorcycles. Signs will be posted. Any person, regardless of age, who drives recklessly in the community, will be reported to the police and will also be subject to disciplinary action by the Board of Directors. Parents are responsible for the behavior of their minor children in this regard, and members are responsible for the behavior of their guests as well.

7. PARKING ON LAKE ROADS - No parking is allowed on any roads within Clearview Lake from November 1st until April 30th between the hours of 9:00 PM and 6:00 AM daily (to allow for overnight snowplowing. If a vehicle is disabled and cannot be moved, the CLPOA should be notified promptly.

8. LAW AND ORDER - CLPOA reserves the right to protect its members and their property with the aid of the police or any other lawful body of the State of New Jersey at any time that it feels necessary. Non-members, as well as members, are subject to the full penalty of the law if such are broken within the Clearview Lake community.

9. MISCELLANEOUS - All members must abide by State laws governing hunting, fishing, fire prevention, and the use of firearms. No hunting or discharge of firearms within community boundaries is allowed. Dogs must be licensed and leashed at all times, unless contained on the owner's property. Dogs must not be allowed to soil on neighboring properties. The Hampton Township Leash Law applies within Clearview Lake. Homeowners are expected to provide a copy of these Rules and Regulations to their tenants. Tenants are subject to all of these Rules and Regulations.

10. COUNTY FILING - A copy of the CLPOA Bylaws, Rules and Regulations shall be filed in the office of the Sussex County Clerk so that purchasers of properties within the Clearview Lake are aware of the obligations they assume with their purchase. Moreover, public notice is hereby made of a seller's obligation to discharge in full all dues, assessments, or other indebtedness owed to the CLPOA.

11. AMENDMENTS – The Board of Directors reserves the right to amend a Rule or Regulation as the situation warrants, by a majority vote. All Rules and Regulations prescribed by the Board of Directors are incorporated within the Bylaws, thereby having the same force and effect as any provision thereof.
